

GREENWICH COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

FORUM

Health &
Environment

Community Services

Support Services

Awareness
Seminars

Techshops

Youth
Involment

Greenwich University
CSR Projects
2013 - 2014

Sharing the Human Responsibility

Greenwichians visit the Flood affected areas

2nd phase of Flood relief campaign

Greenwich University students have always come forward in extending to needy fellow citizens in the hour of need and inculcating a sense of responsibility and duty in students towards the country

Mr Saeed Kamal Mughal, Director Administration and Personnel distributing food supplies, blankets, and house hold necessities to the affecties

Greenwich Social Services Reconnized

Greenwich in recognition of the University's efforts for fulfilling social responsibility, Ms Seema Mughal, Vice Chancellor, Greenwich University received CSR award at the international summit on Corporate Social Responsibility, held in Lahore.

The Vice Chancellor with Governor of Punjab and other dignitaries at International Summit on CSR.

CSR Award 5th International Summit

Ms Tahira Khan, Event & Academic Coordinator and Assistant Professor department of Humanities receiving the 5th CSR award in Karachi

SSWAB TRUST DIALYSIS CENTRE

To raise donation for the charitable fund of the Dialysis Centre SSWAB, Greenwich students and faculty collaborated with Pakistan State Oil (PSO) and involved in Walk-for-a-Noble-Cause. This was covered by the local media.

The walk started from Greenwich University and ended at Farhan Shaheed Park DHA.

Members and trustees of SWAAB Trust Dr K.A Pervez Razvey, Hakeem Abdul Ghaffar and Dr Sarah Abdul Rahman recieve the Funds collected at Greenwich University from Mian Muhammad Afzal.

Greenwich Students at SOS Village

The SOS village which is saw two groups of students visit. The first group entertained the children with games, face painting, and gifts. The second group of students were Rotractors who went with a mission of donating and sharing skills with the faculty and student orphans of the SOS village.

Charity sees the need not the cause

Visits of Sirat-ul Jannah (an Orphanage House) Children

Visiting and always being invited Sira-tul-Jannah to spend time with the children was taken up as a Sociology Project for the entire group of a semester. They arranged food and gifts.

Greenwich Students pledge to donate their organs to SIUT

Strongly believing in this that “Saving a life is equal to saving the entire humanity” Greenwich University has always emphasized and participated in Corporate Social Activities. Keeping the tradition alive, Greenwich once again demonstrated its commitment and dedication in serving the noble cause of community development, organized a public awareness seminar on organ transplantation in collaboration with Sindh Institute of Urology and Transplantation (SIUT), Karachi

Students collected funds from amongst themselves and donated the entire amount to SIUT for the welfare of poor patients

Students also willingly filled the donors’ forms and pledged to donate their organs after brain death to save the life of others

Prof. Dr. Adeeb ul Hassan Rizvi, Director SIUT receiving a cheque from Prof. Dr. A.Q. Mughal of Greenwich University.

Pink Ribbon” Breast Cancer awareness day

“Greenwich University celebrate Pink Ribbon Day to create awareness about Breast Cancer

among the students, staff and faculty.

Group photo of enthusiasts on the Pink Ribbon Day

Community Services by Greenwichians Peela School Renovation Project

The Peela School Project. The volunteering groups of students took over the renovation work of a dilapidated government school. After having installed water coolers, they painted and cleaned the place the students donated books and stationery for the entire school.

Candle Lit Vigil in Solidarity with Palestinians

A candle light vigil was held in solidarity with the Palestinians and a resolution was passed that the humanitarian situation in Palestine must be stopped. This was in lieu of a walk. That had to be called off due to the situation in the city. This was covered by the print media.

Greenwichians

visit to Dar-Ul- Sakoon

Home of peace for physically & mentally challenged children

The students visited the Dar-ul- Sakoon home of peace for the mentally and physically challenged children and adults. Greenwich students played, ate, drank and discussed the problems faced by the inmates. Students contributed a large number of pampers of all sizes which was an immediate need of the home.

Greenwich video

“Drops of Life”

(Polio Eradication in Pakistan)

won 2nd Position

2014 Tallories Network Leaders Conference Video Contest to be held in South Africa.

A magnificent documentary on Polio “Drops of Life” made by the promising students of Mass Communication and Media Studies.

International Women’s Day

“To give women freedom and independence is to give countries the chance of being free and independent”

“None of us can move forward if half of us are held back”

Recommendations made by Ms. Seema Mughal: Women are equal to men and there is no need for women to be given extra privileges because equality for women is progress for all – as stated by the United Nations Women Forum.

Ms Seema Mughal presenting a bouquet to Dr. Abdul Sattar Edhi

Helping others is a real obligation for anyone who has become aware of the needs of his fellow man

(Dr Abdul Sattar Edhi)

Ms Seema Mughal, Vice Chancellor, Greenwich University called on the legendary humanitarian Honorable Dr Abdul Sattar Edhi and discussed matters of mutual interest, specially about the involment of youth in to the humanitarian services. She also enquired about his health and wellbeing.

Services for Humanity Acknowledged!!
(A Glance of the Past)

Greenwich University, the first university to have conferred an Honorary Doctorate on Maulana Abdul Sattar Edhi in recognition of his services for humanity. H.E. Dr Israt ul Ibad Governor Sindh and Ms Seema Mughal, Vice Chancellor, presenting the Honorary Doctroate Degree to Dr. Edhi.

The icon social leader in his message for the youth of Pakistan and specially for the young students of Greenwich University showcased the importance of serving the humanity in distress to the best of their means and strength. He also emphasized on practicing Inter-faith harmony which is direly needed today.

International Day of the Girl

Students of Greenwich University created a meaningful impact by bringing attention to the International 'Day of the Girl' for their fellow students.

Car Wash for Fund Raising

This North American Team with Greenwich Rotractors took part in a Car- Wash- for- a- Cause. They washed cars during the day for all who came by and people contributed small amounts that to the cause of polio.

Committed to Conquer Polio

“Committed to Conquer” took masses of students on three days to the most congested intersections of the city. Here they congregated to make people aware of traffic rules and remind them of the speeding virus of polio. They held up banners Say yes to keeping to the rules Say Yes to two drops for polio. This was in collaboration with the local administration of traffic police.

Shahid Afridi, the international skipper of Pakistan Cricket, ambassador of polio, is seen giving the two drops to child. →

This was projected and covered local and international media channels and the print media very extensively.

Injustice to Bano — A real story
A real story reflecting in our society, espicially genderdiscrimination

Dr. Ruth Pfau, the committed German doctor who came to Pakistan over 50 years ago to help the sick and destitute. She has served the lepers and motivated Greenwich students to take on the mission. Greenwich took heed and participated in volunteer work at the Mary Adelaide Center (MLC)

A national helpline Madadgaar, held an inaugural session channelizing the energy of youth by orientating them with the problems they face in practical life. Greenwich is a part of Madadgar Youth Advocates.

Greenwich students at blood donation camp for patients

Teaching Methodologies

A contineous excercise for developing skills of college and schools teachers of different areas.

